HEARTITUDE - CHARITY THAT KNOWS NO BOUNDS

Dear Well-wishers,

With the blessings and support of 1800+ well-wishers like you our AVG has now become an epitome of confidence to the orphans and the deserving and needy students who are determined to pursue their studies in Hyderabad. This transformation has not taken place over night. Years of struggles, efforts, team work, relentless hard work of inmates and the board of management has over a period of time brought about all round development and progress. Adaptability to the hostel atmosphere from their previous rural/urban background. Though the inmates hail from different parts of AP there is only one philosophy that is to be successful in their career and responsible citizens of tomorrow. Imparting personality development classes have been a tradition of AVG.

Astonishing and shocking experience is seen in the government managed hostels, but things are different at AVG with inmates having study atmosphere enjoying all facilities free of cost provided with extreme warmth, care and affection. AVG is a reflection of strong bondage between the inmates as well as the board of management who are committed to value based approach to life and society.

Despite constraints of financial resources, man power resources and challenges large hearted philanthropists like Sri Sudheer Reddy garu , Former Chairman HUDA, Sri Upender Reddy garu, Chariman M/s INFRATECH and Management of Shirdi Sai Baba Sansthan, Amberpet, are our source of inspiration and motivation.

The above names to manage our hostel are only illustrative and not exhaustive. We are anxiously looking forward for early construction of permanent building in the site allotted by the HUDA. Once it is completed the AVG can embrace many more needy students.

The blessings of each one of you will propel all of us to undertake many more developmental activities. We take pride in submitting to you that we have many meritorious students among the inmates with all India 34th ranker in GATE and got a seat at IIT (Delhi) for M-Tech, campus topper post graduates, graduates, inter students with 95% marks have come out with flying colors. When once the construction process starts which awaits the formal approval of plan by the GHMC, we need your support and patronage.

Come LET US ALL JOIN TOGETHER to fulfill the dreams desires and goals of these deserving orphans.

We'll be reporting to you all developments of AVG from time to time. We are also making arrangements to update our website, www.anadhavidyarthigriha.org which can give you in-depth evaluation of AVG.

We appeal to you to visit our AVG and introduce AVG to your friend and relatives. That is the biggest support we need from you all.

Let us bring cheer, smile, hope to the hopeless.

With regards,

(C V RAGHUVeer)

Community Service

As part of community service the AVGians voluntarily came forward to do a sort of social service for the people in need around them. On 11th January, 2009 the AVGians cleaned up the complete streets of NTR Nagar and surrounding slums located at LB Nagar, Hyderabad, taking the role of sweepers, scavengers and enlightened the slum dwellers on hygiene and its impact on their health. On this occasion the orphanage boys assured to take up free tuitions to the slum children as requested by the residents. Even the AVGians distributed around two hundred and fifty dresses to the slum dwellers which the AVGians received for themselves from several well-wishers. Ofcourse the AVGians are being taken care of by the society at large in pursuing their studies and even for doing such social service as a reciprocate, the boys are well motivated and encouraged with requisite financial support by many social spirited personalities and philanthropists. In organizing the service the AVGians are guided by Sri Vangipuram Ravi Kumar, HR Consultant and Sri K Srinivasa Reddy, AVG Committee Member. Expressing satisfaction in taking up the service program the AVGians disclosed their mind to take up similar programs of public utility like plantation, enlightening people on cleanliness & hygiene and up keeping the nature etc, in the coming days and sought co-operation of one and all.

Construction Progress.....

Completing all procedures an Application alongwith building plan has been submitted to the GHMC seeking permission for construction. And it is being actively pursued with the GHMC. The construction work will start once the permission is granted by the GHMC.

AVG Admissions

The AVG admissions will take place during May, June and July of every year. In this regard a press note / advertisement will be issued in the leading News Papers. The main criteria for admission into AVG is the merit and the social status on priority wise Orphan, Semi-orphan and the deserving Poor. No bar on the candidate's region, religion or caste. The AVG is only for students / boys of Inter and above Courses. The admissions will be through an interview by a screening committee comprising of eminent personalities from various walks of life.

AVG in a word.....

Being a self administrative social organisation running cent percent on the voluntary subscriptions and donations by the philanthropists for several years the AVG has been striving for providing all round support to the orphans, semi-orphans and the deserving poor boys to accomplish their dreams of higher studies. The boys selected in the interview for admission into AVG will be provided with free lodging, boarding, living cloths, general expenditure, text books, note books and other study expenses. Even the AVG helps the boys to get admissions mostly on compassionate grounds in reputed colleges & institutions in and around the Hyderabad city, as per their merrit and eligibility to pursue various courses and degrees including professional courses like engineering, computers, business administration etc. In fact it is most appropriate to say that if a student got admission in the AVG is a great turning point in his life as the AVG stands by all along an AVGian to pursue his higher studies without any hurdles.

THE SUCCESS PRINCIPLES BY JACK CANFIELD

If you want to be successful, you have to take 100% responsibility for everything that you experience in your life. This includes the level of your achievements, the results you produce, the quality of your relationships, the state of your health and physical fitness, your income, your debts, your feelings-Everything!

THIS IS NOT EASY

In fact, most of us have been conditioned to blame something outside of ourselves for the parts of our life we don't like. We blame our parents, our bosses, our friends, the media, our coworkers, our clients, our spouse, the weather, the economy, our astrological chart, our lack of money- anyone or anything we can pin the blame on. We never want to look at where the real problem is- ourselves.

IT'S SIMPLE

The bottom line is that you are the one who is creating your life the way it is. The life you currently live is the result of all of your past thoughts and actions. You are in charge of your current thoughts and your present feelings. You are in charge of what you say and what you do. You are also in charge of what goes into your mind – the books and magazines you read, the movies and television shows you watch, and the people you hangout with. Every action is under your control. To be more successful, all you have to do is act in ways that produce more of what you want.

.....That's it. It's that simple!

SIMPLE ISN'T NECESSARILY EASY

Though this principle is simple, it is not easy to implement. It requires concentrated awareness, dedicated discipline, and a willingness to experiment and take risks. You have to be willing to pay attention to what you are doing and to the results you are producing. You have to ask your self, your family, your friends, your colleagues, your managers, your teachers, your coaches, and your clients for feedback. "Is what I'm doing working? Could I be doing it better? Is there something more I should be doing that I am not? Is there something I am doing that I should stop doing? How do you see me limiting myself?"

Don't be afraid to ask. Most people are afraid to ask for feedback about how they are doing because they are afraid of what they are going to hear. There is nothing to be afraid of. The truth is the truth. You are better off knowing the truth than not knowing it. And once you know, you can do something about it. You cannot improve your life, your relationships, your game, or your performance without feedback.

Slow down and pay attention. Life will always give you feedback about the effects of your behavior if you will just pay attention. If your golf ball is always slicing to the right, if you're not making sales, if you're getting C's in all your college courses, if your children are mad at you, if your body is tired and weak, if your house is a mess, or if you're not happy – this is all feedback. It is telling you that something is wrong. This is the time to start paying attention to what is happening.

Ask yourself: How am I creating or allowing this to happen? What am I doing that's working that I need to be doing more of? (Should I do more practicing, meditating, delegating, trusting, listening, asking questions, keeping my eye on the ball, advertising, saying "I love you," controlling my carbohydrate intake?)

What am I doing that's not working? What do I need to be doing less of? (Am I talking too much, watching too much television, spending too much money, eating too much sugar, drinking too much, being late too often, gossiping putting other people down?)

What am I not doing that I need to try on to see if it works? (Do I need to listen more, exercise, get more sleep, drink more water, ask for help, do more marketing, read, plan, communicate, delegate, follow through, hire a coach, volunteer, or be more appreciative?)

But the formula is simple—do more of what is working, do less of what isn't and try on new behaviors to see if they produce better results.

Many feel, but only a few can express. It is the power of expressing one's love and appreciation and sympathy for others, that enables a person to succeed better than others.
