ANAADHA VIDYARTHI GRIHA
(The Oldest orphanage With a Difference)

Dear Well-wishers,

AVG shifted to own premises – dream translated into a reality

We are at immense please to share this glorious occasion that as reported in the earlier issue, by the last month of June, 2014 the AVG Golden Jubilee Home successfully completed its first phase of construction and the AVGiens have completely shifted from the rented premises to the new & permanent building of 'AVG Golden Jubilee Home' at Chitra Layout, LB Nagar, Hyderabad. The long lasting, dream is realized - wish is fulfilled - hurdle is removed.

It is again to memorise and place on record our gratitude and sincere thanks to each and every kind heart personalities who have involved in completion of the first phase construction of the AVG Home and participating in this social activity of extending helping to the deserving orphans and the poor students by providing all facilities to pursue their higher studies with determination in this great city of Hyderabad and thereby stand on their own as good citizens of the society. We will be failing in our duty if we do not thank all members of our building committee and our advisory board, who have been guiding us all the time.

We do hereby appeal with reverence to all the well-wishers and new age philanthropists and seek their same support and patronage to complete remaining construction part of the mega project 'AVG Golden Jubilee Home' popularly known as a social temple and dedicate to the deserving orphans and poor students.

We congratulate all the 17 AVGiens who made the AVG proud by securing more than 80% to 98% in all disciplines of education during the academic year 2013-14.

with festive season greetings to all of you and your family

With warm regards,

(C.V. RAGHUV EER)
